

DIAMOND JUBILEE

THE CANDID
CAMPUS . . . OBSERVED

By CHARLES LEONG, Editor

SEALING WAX, CABBAGES,

and kings certainly are not things for us to speak of today. As we sat down to write, late last night, for today's paper, a million thoughts, a million themes—all swerving around the general head of DIAMOND JUBILEE—rushed to our brain.

Describe today's doings? The other pages of the Spartan Daily had done that. Give welcome? Dr. MacQuarrie, president of the college, and Paul Becker, president of the student body, have adequately and nobly expressed the sentiments of both the college and the students at large—and their hearty welcome to friends and alumni alike.

ALL THE FANFARE,

all the glitter and pride of celebrating the seventy-fifth year of the college, its outward achievements—in records, in buildings, in men—will be given vocal utterance and tribute by the fine speakers these three days.

But as we sit here, toiling away at the typewriter, several hundred other students are also working tonight, making the final preparations for the various productions—the concert, Peer Gynt, the Grand Ball for Saturday, and the arrangements for the Home-Coming.

TEAR AWAY THE SPECTACULAR . . .

we thought, and see what the Jubilee means, in terms of the individual. To commemorate this event, these hundreds of students have given unselfishly hours and hours of energy.

Let us cite a case: At the rehearsal of Rudolph Ganz, one of the student musicians exclaimed, "I would give five years of my life to have the apprenticeship of working under a man like Ganz."

In terms of living persons, if the Jubilee could bring such fineness of musicianship as Rudolph Ganz to the college—if only for a day—and such fine expressions of appreciation from one student, and multiply this feeling in terms of the thousands of other students and participants—the Jubilee has achieved a purpose.

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MACQUARRIE

President of San Jose State college

EVERY man a host, every woman a hostess. That's our role the rest of the week. No matter how retiring you may feel, will you please accept that responsibility.

Go out of your way to be genial, helpful, gracious. If you see a stranger, take the lead in courtesy. He may not respond, but you just forgive him for that. Now's the time for us to show our quality.

We have some distinguished visitors on our programs, actually the best speakers in the state. Be sure to attend all sessions. I am especially anxious that you shall come to the Morris Dailey Auditorium on Friday at two o'clock. The excitement of the morning, and various luncheons, may be too much for you, but don't forget to be on hand to hear President Sproul of the University of California and former President Hardy of San Diego State college. You will miss an outstanding program if you don't come.

We are going to need a 100% attendance by the students on Saturday morning at ten o'clock in the Civic Auditorium. Let us give Governor Merriam a college yell that he will remember. This request is not political in any sense. Governor Merriam is the chief executive of the state of California, our state, and we owe him all possible courtesy on that account, a whole-hearted and enthusiastic welcome.

I have a great admiration for Governor Merriam. In fact, I am filled with amazement that any man can stand that job up in Sacramento. It is one of the most exacting, nerve-racking situations that I can imagine, and it inspires my greatest enthusiasm when I see a man do it easily and well. I had a little chance to visit with the Governor some weeks ago, right in the middle of one of his fiercest political battles, and he was the same genial gentleman which you will find him Saturday morning.

The other programs you will attend, I am sure, without any special suggestions on my part. Superintendent Dexter Friday morning, the Symphony Thursday evening, Peer Gynt Friday evening, and the Grand Ball Saturday. I expect to go to that Ball myself, although all of my instincts tell me to stay home. I took lessons in dancing for two years once and made little progress. When the modern dances came in, I gave up the attempt. I must have adenoids.

NOTICES

All P. E. major men sign today with Miss Lovoi for the Alumni Banquet at the Italian Hotel on Friday, May 21, at 6:30. Do not fail.

Important meeting of Daily staff at 11 this morning in Room 25. All members please attend, as roll will be taken and assignments for Jubilee coverage will be made.

WHEN I think of the gigantic undertaking of the three-day Diamond Jubilee holid embracing the San Jose State college Symposium concert led by the distinguished Rudolph Ganz tonight, the Peer Gynt pageantry of tomorrow night, and the Ball furnishing the grand finale, am proud that the present student council and student body are playing their small roles in the co-triving of these festivities.

And when I see the focal point of attention the state centered upon Washington Square, its students and their achievements, past and present, and the splendid record the college has written on time scroll, I feel the weight of the honor that has fallen on our student body to continue these accomplishments.

I hear of the notables that are on the way to a triumphant climax of seventy-five years of growth and to help us celebrate it fittingly, and I am humbled in the thought that the present student administration has the privilege to play host to the celebrities the alumni, and the many friends of San Jose State college.

I. BY the way girls . . . have you gotten your new bag for this summer? NO, I thought not . . . well I have. ALL-SPARTAN SPORTS DAY TODAY

All Physical Education Depts. To Participate

TENNIS, FENCING, SWIMMING, BOXING AND WRESTLING ON DAY'S PROGRAM

By BOB WORK, Spartan Daily Sports Editor

All-Spartan Sport Day today.

Today the All-Spartan sports day claims its part of the limelight of the Diamond Jubilee celebration.

This sports demonstration is beyond a doubt one of the most extensive athletic programs ever to be presented at the college.

During the day some of the leading athletes on the campus will perform, from the best women archers to the participation of the man of many titles and best boxer in the school, Stan Griffin.

P. A. SYSTEM

Luke Argilla, student chairman for the day's activities has announced that a public address system will be used throughout the day for the benefit of the spectators.

During the boxing matches Coach Dee Portal will take the mike to describe and give a "blow by blow" account of the matches. Coach Gene Gratton will do the same when his boys take to the canvas for their part in combat series.

PROGRAM

Today's program is as follows:

1:00-2:00 — Archery (women's field).

Tennis — (women's inter-class matches on the campus courts)

2:00-3:00 — Swimming (men's demonstration, Spartan pool)

3:00-4:00 — Archery (San Carlos street turf)

Tennis — (women's doubles on the campus courts)

Wrestling — (small gym)

Boxing — (small gym)

Tumbling — (small gym)

4:00-5:30 — Tennis (men's varsity on the campus courts)

STARTS AT 1 O'CLOCK

The program will start promptly at 1 o'clock on the San Carlos street turf where the women archers will give an exhibition which will see the best arrow shooters from women's sports department perform. Archery is becoming more and more popular and is now drawing bigger classes than it ever has before. Being formerly strictly a women's sport on this campus it is now drawing some outstanding talent from the men's department, although the men will not perform until three o'clock in the afternoon.

At about one-thirty the women will present a series of intraclass tennis matches on the campus courts.

This will be followed by a series of record breaking attempts in the Spartan pool by the men's varsity.

SWIMMING TEAM

Howard Withycombe will attempt to break Bill Draper's school record in the 150 yard medley swim. Coach Charlie Walker's prediction earlier in the week was that his record breaking swimming captain should smash the old record, having already cut 8-10ths of a second from the mark in practice recently.

Coach Walker will also show his record breaking duo of Martin and Al Wempe, who are also intending to seek faster and lower marks in their respective events.

Rounding out the aquatic exhibitions for the day, Harland Wilder and Frank Savage will put on a high and low board diving show.

TENNIS

The tennis matches which go on at four o'clock have been slightly changed since the last announcement. Instead of Forrest Brown meeting Ed Harper he will oppose either John Gordon, the Santa Clara County singles champ, or Paul Rea. Either of these possible opponents will very likely prove to be at least as strong if not stronger than the Spartan number one man on the tennis team.

Ed Harper, second man on the State tennis ladder, will meet the man who losses the toss to play Brown.

Immediately after the singles Gordon and Rea will combine to meet Chuck Rotholtz and Ed Harper in a two out of three series of doubles.

WRESTLING

The wrestlers who go on prior to the tennis matches will offer two exhibitions. Jack Fiebig, who is participating in the present Junior Olympics, will meet Martin Olavarri, who wrestles at 145 lbs. The other match will put John Jones and Sam Della Maggiore in opposite corners of the ring in the heavyweight feature of the evening.

BOXING

The boxers are all set to grab the spotlight with two exhibitions in which four of the school's best mitmen will take part.

Karl Drexel and Georgie Latka who will meet in the first match will be followed by a match between Stan Griffin and Willie Radunich. Radunich, by virtue of his smashing defeat over Dave Smith in the California Amateur matches in San Francisco last Monday, stacks up as a greater possibility to seriously push Griffin than

Where To Go

To the gym and take in the All-Spartan Eleven exhibit. A history of Spartan athletics is also hanging on the walls.

IMPORTANT! NOTICE

Members of the All-Spartan Eleven:

Will all the men who placed on the All-Spartan eleven please come to the Spartan Daily office some time before 10 o'clock today and arrange for their pictures for the Diamond Jubilee exhibit this afternoon. It is very important because if we do not get all the pictures at that time they will be left out of the exhibit, and what is a gallery displaying the All-Spartan Eleven with only ten or nine or even eight pictures?

We also have some information in regard to the awarding of the Certificates of Recognition and the Graham Peake medal.

Walt McPherson, Stanley Griffin, Lowell Todd, Glenn DuBose, Les Carpenter, Howard Withycombe, Jack Fiebig, Owen Collins, Ivor Thomas, Don Walker, and Ray LaClergue, before ten.

pre-exhibition dope has placed him.

These matches will undoubtedly create a lot of interest and a large crowd is expected.

FENCING

Another outstanding event of the day's activities is the fencing exhibitions to be given by the newly formed fencing club. The matches are a novelty as far as Spartan sports are concerned and should provide one of bigger highlights of the day's program.

Withycombe Leads Mermen In SCORES 92 POINTS

Scoring A. Wempe Tops Frosh

By BEN JOHNSON

You can't keep a good man out of the spotlight.

So it seems in regard to swimming captain and senior PAA champion Howard Withycombe of the San Jose State college paddlers.

HIGH SCORER

Howard, who recently distinguished himself by placing sixth on the All-Spartan Eleven, has added one more victory to his list of triumphs. According to the report released by Coach Charlie Walker Captain Howard led the Spartan varsity in high scoring during the current season.

In eight meets, Howard ran up 92 points for an average of 11 and 2-3 points per meet to lead his nearest rival, Harry Regnart by 33 points. Regnart finished the season with 59 points made in six meets. Following in order came Floyd Walker with 58; Keith Birley with 48; Don Tuxford 46; Roger Tassi 38; Arthur Eldridge 30; George Devins 18; and Owen Collins 6.

AL WEMPE LEADER

Al Wempe headed the frosh team with 153 points scored in 13 meetings. His brother Martin was second with 112, Wally Kemper was third with 89, while Leonard Goodwin took a close fourth to Kemper with 87. Following in order were Bagby, 67; Butler, 63; Fisher, 55; Miller, 52; Baehr, 51; Hoey, 48; Savage, 37; Schuh, 14; Abell, 14; and Fosdick, 14.

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1937

Track Men Prepare For Senior P.A.A.

With the Senior P.A.A. meet two days away the Spartan track squad will taper off with a good workout today and take a day off tomorrow to be in peak condition for the cinder carnival at Stanford's Angel field Saturday.

Going in for individual performances, the Spartans will have little chance for team honors against such competition as offered by the Olympic Club, California, and Stanford.

POSSIBLE POINTS

However, the locals will have a good chance of emassing points in the javelin and the broad jump with Bob Clark of the Olympic Club the only logical man to beat Charley Bendeich in the pit scanning affair and Lowell Todd a favorite in the javelin event.

Todd has consistently been tossing over 200 feet all season and has dropped events only in the Fresno and Drake Relays. Putting the spear into the ozone at the Fresno meet as far as he did in the Olympic Club meet, Todd would have easily won the affair, but so goes the tossing of the spear. Even so, he has proven that over the 200-foot mark is fairly consistent with him and he will probably not be forced to any farther distances by any northern entrants.

DARK HORSE MOTTRAM

Johnny Mottram, former Stanford star and Olympic Club entry, will be somewhat of a dark horse in the event as he has former marks of around 220 but which he has not approached so far this year.

Brooks, freshman entry in the sprints, is usually a hard man to follow but might surprise and break ten flat to gather a few counters in the century. He will probably not fare so well in the furlong as he has not shown the stamina for the longer distance this season.

VIN RUBLE

Vin Ruble, another yearling entry, will be in his favorite heat, the two mile run and will be against such tough competition as the Olympic Club combination of Lydic and Bright. In the Club meet earlier in the season, Vin was able to break up the point scoring pair and beat Lydic to the finish by a good fifty yards but did not have the class to stay with the Sunnyvale school each other and world record holder, Norman Bright.

Coach Franny Pura's Freshman Nine Meets Agnew State Hospital

Today will be the last time to see any Spartan baseballers in action this season. This afternoon the yearling baseball squad of San Jose State ends its 1937 season when it tangles with the Agnew State Hospital nine on the Agnew diamond at four o'clock.

Coach Gil Bishop announced early yesterday that Leroy Zimmerman, lanky twirler for the frosh, would start on the mound against the Agnew outfit. 'Zimmie' has turned in more victories this season than any of his teammates in the box, and is hailed as a first string chucker for the varsity next year.

LUCKENBILL

Bill Luckenbill will complete the batteries for this afternoon's contest. Luckenbill has been first string "backstopper" all season, and much will be heard of him in years to come.

In the infield, Bishop will start his regulars, namely Ashworth at first, Sanchez at second, Adams at third, and Rhodes at short. Ashworth has turned in nice performances both at first and in the box this year, and proves to be a cinch for a varsity post in years to come. At the "keystone corner" little "Peppy" Sanchez has probably turned in the best performance of any second sacker ever to play for a frosh baseball team.

THIRD SACKER

Starting over at the "hot corner" for his last frosh game, will be "Butch" Adams, slugging third sacker for the yearlings. Harvey Rhodes has turned in a "fat" average at the plate, and will be a strong contender for the vacant spot left by Captain Les Carpenter this year.

In the outfield, Frank Martella, Peavy, Thompson, Teresi, and Walsh have played the majority of the contests this season, and any one may get first call for the final tilt this afternoon.

In Frank Martella, Coach Bishop boasts the heaviest hitter on the club, having led his teammates with the stick all season, and will be a strong contender for a varsity post next year. Peavy, Thompson, Teresi, and Walsh also are rated for posts on future varsity teams.

Floor show entertainers include Dean Maddox, also known as "Buddha", Don Julian and Marjorie, Roy Russell, Shelia Chandler, and Steve Shepard.

Colored lights reflecting from a cellophane covered ceiling and white crepe paper drapes will make up the decorations for the Municipal Auditorium, according to members of the dance committee.

GLAMOUR--LORE

Acne is a condition that is often difficult to eliminate, but it may be overcome with perseverance. Beneficial results in the treatment of acne depend upon the continuity of applications. A cleansing, stimulating and medicated treatment is very necessary to prevent the skin from pitting, which not only is embarrassing but pitiful.

Because of the difference in causes and types of acne, it is difficult to make generalized statements on the treatment of this condition. Absolute cleanliness and sparing use of cosmetics are, however, the main essentials of all treatments.

If you are among those who are embarrassed by this condition, why not call on Mrs. Hunter at the Venetian Studio of Beauty at 14 East San Fernando street, and let her explain the treatments with which she has been realizing some exceptionally fine results.
